THE LUMBERMEN.

Make we here our camp of winter ;

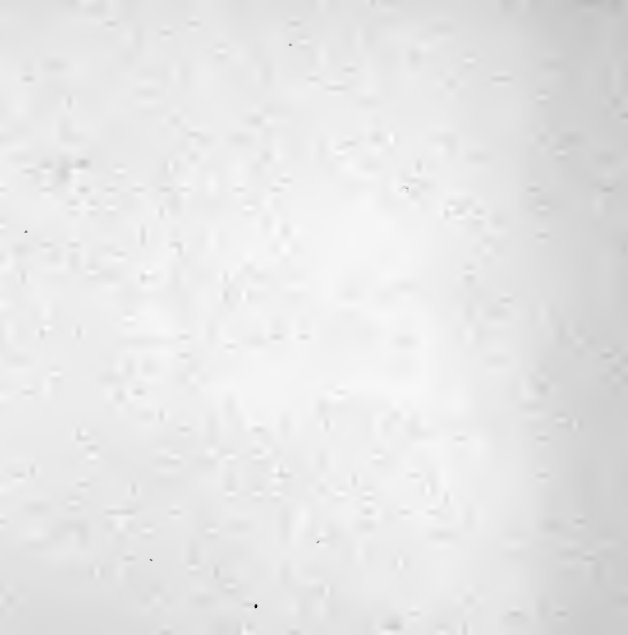

And, through sleet and snow,

Pitchy knot and beechen splinter

On our hearth shall glow.

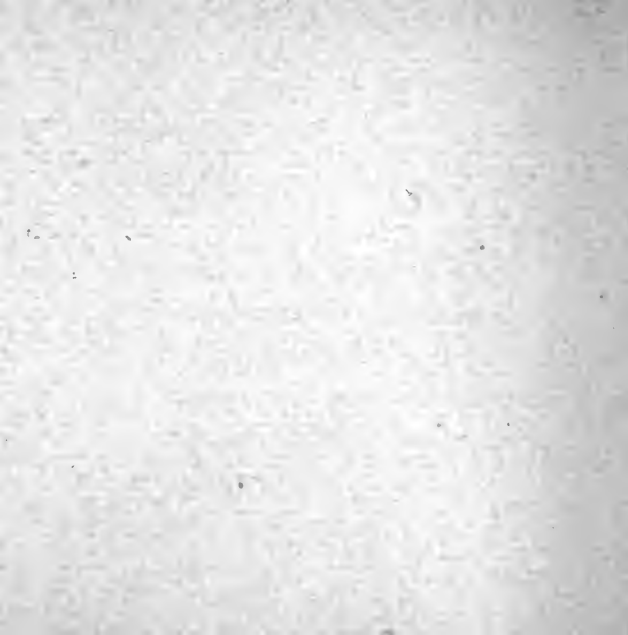

WHITTIER'S BIRTHPLACE.

AMESBURY, MASS.

THE GRAVE BY THE LAKE.

*Where the Great Lake's sunny smiles
Dimple round its hundred isles,
And the mountain's granite ledge
Cleaves the water like a wedge,
Ringed about with smooth, gray stones,
Rest the giant's mighty bones.*

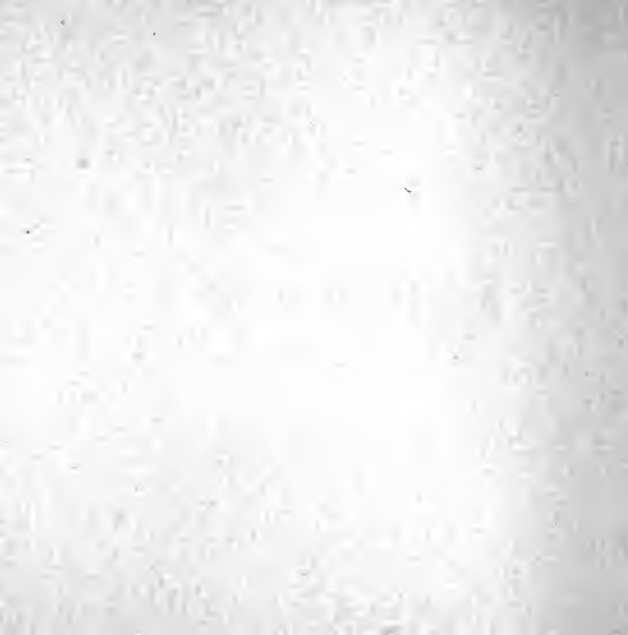

SNOW-BOUND.

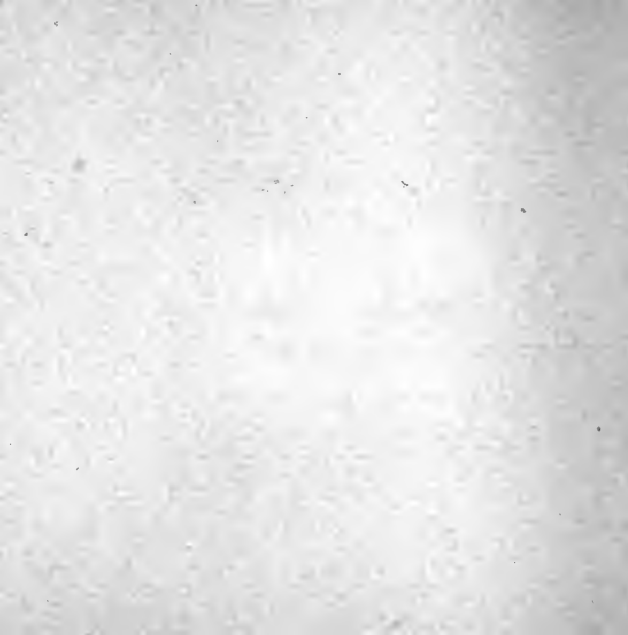

WHITTIER'S HOME.

OAK KNOLL, DANVERS, MASS.

1943 Dec 11

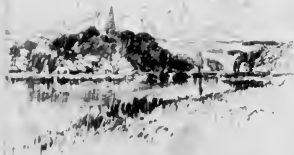

THE MERRIMACK.

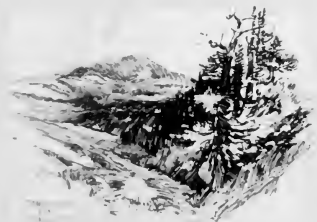

*Stream of my fathers! sweetly still
The sunset rays thy valley fill;
Poured slantways down the long defile,
Wave, wood, and spire beneath them smile.*

THE MOSCOW WATER

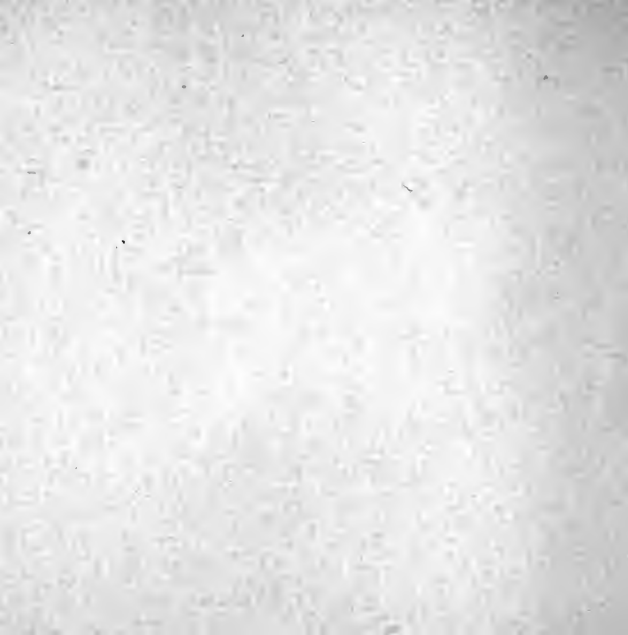

THE WRECK OF RIVERMOUTH.

*Once, in the old Colonial days,
Two hundred years ago or more,
A boat sailed down through the winding ways
Of Hampton River to that low shore.*
